As some of you might know already that tomorrow is my last working day in Microsoft. Over the past 7.5 years, here, the Microsoft CSS has been my big home. I've never thought that I could leave here someday. It's however the time. Let's say goodbye with smiling.

Working in Microsoft has been a wonderful experience in my life. I fortunately had some clips saved in my memory...

My first day in Microsoft was Friday, July 29th, 2002. I signed a lot of papers, and contracts and then received my key card as well as a welcome email from billg. Hey, I'm a Microsoft guy now...

Following by the happy first day is the 3-week training, called Service Camp. It is a 'nightmare' since I usually went home at about 1 or 2 AM. (Yes, AM). They are however my sweet memories since I learnt a lot in these 3 weeks and those I learnt helped me till now.

It is interesting that I joined into the ECHO team in Windows Online Division (WOD) and started to work on my first support case on Office Setup support. I believe that is the reason for me to join into the Enterprise Communications Support team eventually. :-p Although saying that, I couldn't count how much I learnt and obtained in ECHO, and I do miss the life there...

I can still recall my first premier customer. She told me that she also remember that case and she can hear how nervous I was at that time. Yes, I was too young at that time. ☺

I don't know the reason but the most exciting thing for me is when I found and filed the first bug in Exchange. I even feel much more excited on this than when I passed the board review of Escalation Engineer.

I was told that Microsoft will have a campus in Shanghai several years ago. After that I dreamed to move to the campus. Now, the dream comes true fortunately. ☺

Not only for memories, as a last-working-day email, I would also like to express my appreciation to everybody who helped me. It is you who helped me to grow up from a newbie. It is you who helped me to learn how to communicate with others. It is you who helped me to learn understanding, tolerance, and respect. It is you who helped me to overcome my most difficult time in my life. I do want to say THANK YOU and would like to keep in touch with you guys. Below are the options for you to reach me.

NOTE: I will not stay in Shanghai usually in the future, so my mobile number is probably changed in several months. I'll then update you guys with the new number.

Guys, I'll definitely miss you all as well as Microsoft.

Good-Bye everyone!

你也许已经知道，明天将是我在微软工作的最后一天。在过去的七年半的时间里，我已经把这里，Microsoft CSS当做自己的家，也从来没有想过自己会有那么一天要离开这里。这一刻到来了，能做的也只是和大家微笑着说再见。

在微软工作的日子会是我人生中一段非常精彩经历。就要离开了，那片回忆总是在脑海里荡漾……

我是在2002年的7月29日加入微软的。那一天没做什么事情，只是签下了一堆合同与文件，也收到了一封来自billg的欢迎邮件。从这一天起，我是微软的人了……

入职以后的三周是“恐怖”的Service Camp。几乎每天都要战斗到凌晨一两点钟。不过这三周里，学到的东西也是最多的。很多东西至今都受益匪浅。

我的正式工作时从Windows Online部门的Echo team开始的。不过有趣的是，我并没有从事Windows的support。我的第一个case来自于Office Setup。我相信，这是我最终走进Enterprise Communications Support的原因。:-p 玩笑归玩笑，在ECHO学到的，获得的，我无法计算。那段日子，很值得怀念……

我仍然记得我的第一个premier的客户，并和她保持着联系。她对我说，她也依然记得她从电话中可以听出我的紧张。好吧，那个时候我还很年轻。☺

不知为何，记忆中最让我兴奋的事情居然是我发现并提交了第一个Bug。而这种兴奋的感觉即使在我通过了Escalation Engineer的Board review的时候也没有再次找到。

多年以前就听说了微软会有一个属于自己的园区。我也一直梦想着能有机会在这个园区里工作。嗯，非常幸运，现在梦想成真了。☺

作为一封last working day的邮件，当然不仅仅只有回忆；这里，我也要过去每一位帮助过我的人致以我最真诚的感谢。是你们，帮助我从一个新手成长成为一个合格的工程师。是你们，教会我如何与他人交流。是你们，让我懂得什么是理解，宽容与尊重。是你们，帮助我读过了过去一段最困难的日子。谢谢你们！非常希望在未来的日子里，能与各位仍然保持紧密的联系。你可以选择一下任意一种方式联系到我☺

注：由于我不会常驻上海，我的手机号码可能会变更。届时我会向各位更新我的新手机号。

各位，我知道肯定会很想念微软，会很想念大家的。

再见啦！
